THE MOTTO OF THE GAMES IS "AMERICA: ESPIRITO, SPORT, FRATERNITÉ" and means "The American spirit of friendship through sports". It includes the four major languages of the Western Hemisphere—English, Spanish, Portuguese and French.

THE SYMBOL OF THE 1967 GAMES is designed to communicate the idea that this is a Canadian sporting event. It represents a track athlete with a Canadian maple leaf on his track shirt, whose arms are outstretched in a sign of welcome to the athletes and visitors from the Pan-American nations.
